AWARDS QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

AM I ELIGIBLE TO THE AAC APPRENTICESHIP AWARDS?

Entries will only be accepted from employers, providers and individuals involved in the development or delivery of recognised apprenticeships in the UK. Apprenticeships can either be frameworks new Apprenticeship Standards.

WHAT IS THE CLOSING DATE FOR ENTRIES?

You must ensure your application is submitted by 17:00 on 8th January 2018. We will email you a confirmation of receipt.

IS THERE A CHARGE FOR ENTERING?

No, entry to the awards is free.

Tickets for the awards dinner are available for purchase, see <http://feweekaac.com/>. Regional winners will receive a free pair of tickets to the national and regional awards reception.

HOW DOES THE AWARDS PROCESS WORK?

The AAC Apprenticeship Awards are a competitive process and there are regional and national awards.

1. Firstly, all applications are read and coded so that the applications are given anonymously to our judges
2. The applications are sent to our judges on Friday 12th January 2018 for review
3. The judging panel will meet to decide regional and national winners on Wednesday 24th January
4. Applicants will be notified of the outcome and invited to the regional awards reception, which will take place on 5th March 2018 at the Houses of Parliament.
5. Regional winners will be offered a pair of tickets to the national awards dinner
6. Regional finalists will be publicly announced and published in FE Week on Friday 9 March
7. The National AAC Apprenticeship Awards winners will be announced at the awards dinner on Thursday 22nd March.

WHO IS ON THE JUDGING PANEL?

Our judges have been selected from across the sector. The judging panel will be announced in January 2018.

HOW DO I KNOW THAT MY APPLICATION HAS BEEN ACCEPTED?

You will only be entered into the AAC Apprenticeship Awards once you have submitted your application and you have received an email confirmation. We will not review applications until after the closing date, so it's your responsibility to ensure that the application is complete.

HOW DO I APPLY?

Applications should address the award criteria and include any relevant data or supporting evidence. The submission will have two parts:

1. The application form – confirming the details of the organisation or individual being nominated and confirming which award is being applied for. Each nomination should complete a separate form. It should also provide a brief summary of the how you meet the criteria
2. This is your application document and it should be anonymous. Judges will not see the names of the organisations or individuals submitted. Your submission should outline how you meet the criteria for your specific award and include any case studies, data or testimonials that you wish to include. Submissions are limited to 2,000 words.

Both parts of the application should be submitted via our application system. This can be accessed via feweekaac.com/aac-awards. Once we have
