2020

WELCOME

On the back of the tremendous success of previous years, we're delighted to launch details for the sixth Annual Apprenticeship Conference.

AAC 2020 is the not to be missed two-day policy and practice conference dedicated to apprenticeships. AAC is now firmly established as the premier professional Apprenticeship Conference in the UK. AAC provides policy and practical updates for a diverse range of delegates operating within the apprenticeship sector, including levy paying employers, SMEs, FE Colleges, Local Authorities, training providers and universities.

The Conference comes at a critical time for the sector. We are therefore delighted to continue our partnership with the Department for Education, ensuring that AAC will continue to offer an unrivalled line-up of speakers and workshops for delegates.

The exhibition and sponsorship opportunities outlined within this brochure have been created to support your organisation in showcasing its products and services to a highly influential and exclusive audience.

In 2019, AAC offered an array of prominent key note speakers from top politicians, civil servants, providers, employers and, most importantly, apprentices, and a range of in-depth practical workshops for delegates to attend.

AAC 2019 attracted an audience of more than 1,250 delegates and 60 exhibitors at Birmingham's International Convention Centre.

The International Convention Centre (ICC) in Birmingham plays host to hundreds of large exhibitions and conferences every year. This venue for AAC provides our exhibitors and sponsors with the best environment possible to communicate with our influential delegates.

Following AAC 2019, we have worked with the ICC to review our exhibition and catering arrangements. Our new layout for 2020 has been devised with the delegate flow in mind. We've increased open spaces and seating areas and will be having a pop-up style catering offer. These catering stalls will serve a variety of popular world foods and will encourage delegates to explore the conference hall further.

At the end of day two we will also be hosting the 3rd FE Week and AELP Annual Apprenticeship Awards at the AAC's hugely popular Gala Dinner evening.

AAC 2020 is set to attract well over 1,250 delegates and is an essential two-day Apprenticeship Conference and Exhibition for any organisation working with apprenticeships.

WHY AAC IS THE EVENT OF THE YEAR FOR YOUR ORGANISATION

The fifth FE Week Annual Apprenticeship Conference was the biggest yet, with a record number of delegates. Highlights included an increased proportion of employers attending the Conference from across multiple sectors. It was also the second year that we made access to the exhibition area free of charge which allowed for a more diverse range of visitors and was welcomed by our returning exhibitors. There simply is no other event like AAC in terms of audience and content.

Delegates were clear in their feedback from the 2019 Conference that they love our workshops and want to see more feature as a key part of the Conference programme in 2020.

For AAC 2020, we will be producing a wide array of workshops for delegates to attend across the two days. The opportunity to hold a workshop is proving popular with numerous requests from organisations interested in hosting a workshop at AAC 2020 already received. To help ensure good attendance we will be limiting the number of workshops to ten at any one time, meaning a total of 60 workshops.

As AAC workshops are going to form a major part of the Conference in 2020, we would like to invite you to submit session proposals which will form part of the overall programme over the coming few months. There will be several workshop strands at AAC 2020: funding reform; assessment; inspection and performance; English and maths; audit and compliance; traineeships; marketing; engaging employers; LLDD. To enquire about holding a workshop please email AAC@feweek.co.uk.
